

Fees & Payments

Fees

The format of GMET training program is flexible and caters to wide spectrum of learning needs of individuals and companies. For instance, although the standard form of the GMET Training Program is Combined Training, it can also be delivered by two distinctive training methods: In-Class training and Structured Instructor Led Online Self-Study for each course.

(Table – 1) Per Person Fees for the GMET Training Program

Registration Fees Training Format & Contents	Fees	Training Format & Contents
Structured Online Self-Study		Access to GMET Training Online Management System for two months each course: Syllabus, Calendar, Lecture Notes, Reading, Assignments, Instructor Led Course Forum, and Course Library. The access privilege may be extended for another two months at request of trainees.
Four Courses	$1,800	Register four courses at one time.
Single Course	$550	Register less than four courses at one time. Trainees who register two or three courses will also pay single course fee for each of the two or three courses.
In-Class Training		Lecture notes, lecture presentations, and three days in-class intensive training by the instructor of the subject, including final exam.
Four Courses	$4,700	Register four courses at one time.
Single Course	$1,250	Register less than four courses at one time. Trainees who register two or three courses will also pay single course fee for each of the two or three courses.
Combined Training		Combined benefits of both Structured Online Self-Study and In-Class Training
Four Courses (Self-Online Study and In-Class Training for four course)	$5,800	Register four courses at one time.
Single Course (Self Online Study and In-Class Training for one course)	$1,500	Register less than four courses at one time. Trainees who register two or three courses will also pay single course fee for each of the two or three courses.

Payment Methods

Total payment is due at the time when trainee(s) is registered for training. Application without payment will not be considered as valid. Abar Solutions does not accept payment in installments or partial payment. Please do not send in cash.

Bank Transfer

Please call +965 261-1840 for more information and to make arrangements.

Trainee's name and telephone number (including area code) must appear on all payments made.

If fees for more than one trainee are paid, a list of all candidates' names and telephone numbers (including area codes) must be supplied. Payment received without proper trainee identification may be returned to the sender unprocessed.

Payment for training with company or authorized training should be based on the relevant terms and conditions set forth in the contract.